

PREMIER

LOGISTICS SOLUTIONS

If you are an LTL sales agent (1099) who wants to focus solely on sales and not operations, set your sights on joining the team of leaders at Premier Logistics Solutions.

While other freight agent (1099) programs require you to perform operational & customer service functions, Premier Logistics' program allows you to do what you do best: sell. Our client support staff provides quoting, dispatching, tracking, auditing, invoicing, collections and claims management.

Premier Logistics' freight management programs focus on client specific needs, custom pricing programs and long-term management relationships. Our goal is to allow your book of business to work for you by empowering your clients with a strategic supply chain solution, quality carrier options and unparalleled client support.
